CANTINA DELLA VOLTA, BRUTROSSO

lambrusco di sorbara, emilia-romagna, nv

- 35 -

Cantina della Volta sets themselves apart by producing their sparkling red Lambrusco wines using the Champagne Method of production. Their Brutrosso is a favorite of ours with its perfect balance and freshness. Enjoy aromas and flavors of wild strawberry, pomegranates, and violets on this zippy dry red bubbly. It is the perfect pairing with any cheesy red sauce dish, like the chicken parmesan!

TERENZI, BALBINO VERMENTINO

maremma, tuscany, 2024

- 27 -

Rolling volcanic hillsides meet the Tyrrhenian Seas in the southern Tuscan region of Maremma. Here, we can find some of the finest expression of Vermentino in all of Italy. This white wine from family winery, Terenzi, is silky smooth and dry with aromas and flavors of ripe pear, green apple, pineapple, white flowers, and sage. Enjoy it with a fish dish or any of our antipasti.

PLANETA, CERASUOLO DI VITTORIA

nero d'avola / frappato, sicily, 2024

- 39 -

Cerasuolo means "cherry red" in the local dialect, and is an apt descriptor for this popular style of wine from Sicily. This fresh, medium-bodied red wine has very subtle tannins and flavors of strawberries, pomegranates, and raspberries. It is a great pairing for the baked eggplant rollatini!

VILLA PAPIANO, LE PAGESSE ROMAGNA

sangiovese, modigliana, emilia-romagna, 2023

- 34 -

Just across the Appenine Mountains from Tuscany, nestled in the steep, wooded foothills are the wild vineyards of Villa Papiano. This is a Sangiovese grown in wild, hilly forests that expresses a brambly and herbaceous complexity with an approachable, lively palate. It's incredibly versatile and is a great bottle to pair with your entire meal, especially if you're enjoying our red sauce!
